

DENIED BY M'CORMICK.

In a story sent out from Chicago it is said that Harold K. McCormick, an enthusiastic aviator, non-in-law of John D. Rockefeller, is planning to attempt a flight across the Atlantic in the largest aeroplane yet built.

Mr. McCormick is in Boston. At the Touraine Hotel he denied the truth of the report, and said the story was a hoax, as he had no intention of attempting the transatlantic flight.

CLERK AND BELLBOYS HELD AFTER RAID ON KING EDWARD HOTEL

Detectives Occupied Rooms and Collected Evidence of Disorderly Doings.

Edward Page, night clerk of the King Edward Hotel, No. 155 West Forty-seventh street, and Frederick Gruner and Charles L. Shepherd, negro bellboys, were held in the West Side Court today by Magistrate Nolan in $1,000 bail each for examination on a charge of maintaining a disorderly resort. The hotel was raided early this morning by Inspector Dwyer and more than twenty of his men.

Detectives Jones, Sutter, Dolan and Noll swore to Magistrate Nolan that they had practically lived in the hotel for the last three weeks. Sometimes, they said, they registered as single men and had women sent to their rooms by the clerk and the bellboys.

Persons in the hotel other than those arrested were not disturbed by the raiders. A man in uniform was put in charge of the desk and no new arrivals were allowed to take rooms.

Word of the visit of the police to the hotel got abroad in the restaurants and tango places of the all-night part of Broadway in an astonishingly short time and the street was soon filled with a curious multitude.

Charles E. Hollingsworth, one of the managers of the hotel, said: "We have been here for eight years and nobody has ever before questioned the propriety of the house. We have 200 permanent guests in the house right now."

Inspector Dwyer has raided twenty or more hotels on similar complaints, but has found obstacles in the way of the prosecution of the managers when the cases have reached the District Attorney's office. A year ago he raided the Little Belmont, managed by Rose Barrick. Mrs. Barrick pleaded guilty to violating the Excise law, but the principal complaint against her has been called in Special Sessions six times and postponed, although Inspector Dwyer and his men have always been on hand. In this, as in other cases, Assistant District Attorney Groehl has caused the postponements with the apparent purpose of inquiring into certain motives and methods connected with the raids.

INDIGENT NIECE ASKS SUPPORT FROM IMBECILE

Estate of Brinckerhoff has Increased in Value Eight Times Since He Lost Reason.

A referee will decide to-day if Mrs. Louise B. Armstrong, widow of a four children, is entitled to more than $50 a month from the estate of Edwin O. Brinckerhoff, eighty-three years old, an inmate of Bloomingdale Insane Asylum since 1877. Since his incarceration, his estate has grown until it is now $282,760.01, or nearly eight times what it was when he lost his reason. At least four indigent relatives are provided for out of the estate's income.

Mrs. Armstrong is his niece, living upstate. Before her uncle became wealthy, she says her mother, now dead, was her uncle's favorite sister and aided him to accumulate his property.

She says she is sure her uncle would provide liberally for her if he could appreciate her present distress and asks that her allowance be increased to $100 a month. The income

WASTING AWAY Those That Cannot Eat Without After-Regrets

"I can't eat, if I did it would do me no good." How many women are saying this to-day! But they have to work just the same, whether they eat or not. They grow thin, and haggard, and nervous, and are at their wit's end.

The stomach, liver and bowels cause more trouble than any other part of the body. There are thousands of persons whose food don't do them the good it should. They have bad taste in mouth, coated tongue, constipation, gas in stomach, fullness or distress after meals, bloating and belching of wind. They often have headache, are weak and nervous, have sallow complexion and can't sleep.

Dr. Greene's Nervura builds people up because it makes you get the benefit of your food and drives nutrition to the limits of your body by curing your nerves.

Take Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, for now of all times it is most dangerous to neglect your health, and the system is always made strong and vigorous by this perfect medicine.

Remember the great advantage of having your medicine put up by Dr. Greene, a regular practicing physician, who guarantees his Nervura and will stand behind it at all times. Dr. Greene can be consulted by mail free. Write him about your case to his office and laboratory, 597 Albany St., Boston, Mass.
